AFFIDAVIT OF PLAINTIFF ANNE BRYANT CONCERNING FRAMED ISSUE HEARING AND IN RESPONSE TO SUNBOW'S COUNSEL'S LETTERS OF 8/19/04 AND 9/23/04

STATE OF NEW YORK)
)
) ss:
COUNTY OF ROCKLAND)

ANNE BRYANT, being duly sworn, deposes and says:

MS PHARES' RED HERRINGS

1. I submit this Affidavit in response to the letters from Sunbow Production Inc.'s ["SUNBOW"] counsel, Gloria Phares, Esq. dated August 19, 2004 and September 23, 2004 and in connection with the Framed Issue Hearing which the Court has scheduled for October 29, 2004. As I understand where we are, the parties were in the middle of the liability phase of the trial when the recent issues came up regarding the validity of certain agreements.

2. Sunbow's attorney, Ms. Phares apparently believes her mean-spirited letters should accomplish what Sunbow and its co-defendant Bacal's numerous motions failed to do [I thought the Court said no more motions] and somehow end this case in mid-trial.

RED HERRING 1-WORK FOR HIRE

3. Ms Phares apparently rejects the Court's prior decisions and especially the clear statements in the Court's Decision of May 26, 2004 [which I cover later] and the pleadings and my deposition testimony and she ignores the express terms of the very agreements she has put before the Court which confirm my claims that I retained writer royalties even if the work was done on a work for hire basis. This "work for hire" issue is the first of several red herrings Sunbow has belatedly thrown at the Court. As I understand it, in order for a copyright of my music to be registered and exploited by someone other than me, the "work for hire" language must be in a written agreement. This is not in contention- I have always said that I gave the copyrights of my music to either Sunbow or GBI but consistent with my practice and industry practice, kept my writer's royalties, a major source of my income [See e.g. Exhibit A. my trial testimony of July 7, 2004, pages 47 and 48]. What I have always said remains true.

RED HERRING 2-MY TESTIMONY ABOUT AGREEMENTS

4. The second red herring is the idea that I have relied solely upon an oral agreement as evidence of my working relationship with Bacal - this is likewise not true. Our arrangement included both oral and written understandings and I testified that Ford Kinder told me there were written agreements. Why would I not defend the attempts to dismiss this case based on the lack of a writing when the very Jem Agreement now before the court confirms my writer royalties? Contrary to Ms. Phares' attempts to paint me as untruthful, I did not deny written agreements existed [Exhibit B, pages 75-76]. While it is true that I once said in an affidavit that there were no written agreements, my point there was there were none which would have signed away my writer's royalties which I guard zealously. Nothing produced by Ms. Phares shows the contrary.

PUBLISHING INCOME-MY WRITER'S SHARE

5. I wrote for Joe Bacal, Creative Director and co-owner and principal of Sunbow and GBI. The Court has already noted the fiduciary issues regarding my relationship with Bacal and stated clearly that its analysis as to Bacal applied to his other companies, Defendant Star Wild Music and Wild Star Music ASCAP (Opinion, page 17 and 18). The same is true of Sunbow. There is no dispute that at the relevant times Sunbow owned both of these publishing entities while Bacal, and Griffin, his partner, owned Sunbow. Both are shown as producers, along with Jay Bacal, on for example the Kid Rhino Home Video Transformer's The Movie DVD [Exhibit 9 in evid.] I point out that this theme composed by me [with additional lyric by others] is now a CBS records sound track which would certainly generate mechanical royalties. Although I settled with Bacal personally, that settlement does not extend to any other person including Sunbow.

6. Bacal dealt with me on behalf of both Sunbow and GBI, and as I have shown, Sunbow has reaped millions with licenses of products with my music including music written not for Sunbow, but for GBI. I clear up any confusion on this with the attached Excel spread sheet [Exhibit C]. So it is that while the Transformer's Theme was written for GBI for advertising and as a TV commercial jingle, the Transformer's Movie Theme, composed in 1986 , was done for Sunbow. Similarly, the Jem Girls Closing Theme was originally written as a TV commercial jingle for GBI but later used as a Sunbow TV show theme - the closing theme for the JEM show.

GENESIS OF MUSIC-SWEETHEART DEALS WITH MY COMPOSITIONS

7. The Court has often mentioned that this case is somewhat murky. I have prepared the attached Excel document [Exhibit C] which I believe clarifies any murkiness as to the genesis and subsequent uses and exploitation of each composition at issue and I attach it as Exhibit C. This Excel sheet document:

- a. Identifies each composition;
- b. The company [GBI or Sunbow] for which the composition was written;
- c. Identifies Starwild and/ or Wildstar, the Sunbow - Bacal-Griffin commonly owned and controlled publisher;
- d. The original use of the music; and
- e. Supplemental and later unforeseen uses including uses such as telephone ring tones [for which performance royalties should accrue]; CD's; and DVD's 1 [technologies not even in existence in the mid-80's].

THE CURRENT STATUS OF WRITTEN AGREEMENTS AND THIS HEARING

8. What then is my position on the documents before the Court and how necessary is this hearing? My position is as I indicated in my prior Affidavit as modified by my counsel's letter of September 20, 2004. In sum:

1. CD's obviously play music and generate mechanical royalties. But DVD's of course likewise can be played as music only and in fact the Jem Boxed DVD set, [Exhibit 15 in evid.] has a specific "Play Songs" feature as do many. This makes it equivalent to a record. See Passman treatise I previously mentioned at p. 87 "What's A Record?" where he says that "...in virtually every record agreement made since the 1960's, the contractual definition of record says a record both an audio-only and an audiovisual device...". If it can be played as music, it's a record and I should get the usual mechanical royalties.

-Jem Agreement dated "June 1, 1985" [Sunbow 870-0882]. This relates to the 154 feature songs and not the Jem theme which was written before June of 1985, and this document is apparently later backdated since as late as 1987, according to Mr. Harris's correspondence, it was unsigned.² It is also not correct as to the financial provisions. To the extent the Agreement provides, as I believe it does, for future royalties for other uses, and for "mechanical" royalties, [see parag. 6 (a) (i) and (vi)- see below] I believe in substance it is correct but I submit this includes all the media in which my music is used: CD's, DVD's, VHS' and other uses. As to synchronization fees, if the agreement is binding even in light of the other issues mentioned above, and relative to the feature songs only since the agreement does not relate to the themes, I leave this to the Court to decide following all the evidence to be put in the case and the expert testimony as to what this provision means. As stated in my counsel's letter, I am not contesting the signatures on the Jem Schedule A or the Jem inducement letter [Sunbow 880-882]. I will say however that Ford Kinder could not bind me since we did not operate as partners but as a corporation.

9. At page 5 of the Jem Agreement [Sunbow 0874] it is provided that

"(a) With respect to Company's exercise of music publishing rights in the Music (as defined above) (but excluding use in connection with Premium Cassettes as defined in Paragraph 2(a) for which Contractor shall not receive any further compensation), uses of the Music combined with lyrics (but, if the Music with lyrics or any form thereof is the composition of Writer and other composers and/or lyricists,

2. Harris May 30, 1986 letter to Dobishinski [Defendant's Trial Exhibit I] apparently enclosing agreements tells him "We suggest that the following dates be inserted in the agreements: Jem-June 1, 1985" and this is the date inserted by hand over an obvious 1986 typewritten date (see Sunbow 870).

then the royalties hereunder shall be shared equally by all such lyricists and/or composers):

(i) sums equal to fifty (50%) percent of the net proceeds (as defined below) received by Company from third parties for licenses for the manufacture or commercial phonograph records and/or licenses of theatrical motion picture synchronization rights (as defined below);

(vi) with respect to other uses of the Music hereunder, sums equal to the amount resulting from dividing fifty (50%) percent of the net proceeds received by Company from third parties therefor by the total number of copyrighted musical compositions and/or literary materials contained or included in such uses.

10. The JEM Agreement is consistent with the expert testimony I will offer from David Berman, former president of Capitol Records [who says among other things that in the industry it is considered improper to even try and obtain the writer's share of publishing royalties] and also consistent with the Passman and Krasilovsky/Shemel treatises I have previously submitted [and which the Court mentioned in its May 2004 Opinion]. Even more tellingly, my position, the experts' position, and the Jem provisions are also consistent with the statements by Sunbow's own expert, Helene Blue who has furnished an Affidavit to the Court confirming that writers retain their royalties.³ As I mention hereafter, even Ms. Phares has admitted at least that royalties may be due on DVD's to Ford Kinder [and by implication me].

11. My Little Pony & Friends [Sunbow 883-892]. Kinder & Bryant wrote the theme for My Little Pony AND FRIENDS for SUNBOW [see my Excel sheet] but did not write the songs for the Sunbow TV production. This Agreement is not relevant and the Court should not have to deal with it or the documents related to it. As to any uses of our theme, we would be entitled to the performance, mechanical royalties and synch fees as indicated.

12. Transformer's Agreements [Sunbow 896-902]. Contrary To Sunbow's statement, I did in fact comment on these documents in my prior affidavit. The Transformer's Main Theme was composed in 1983 [see Sunbow 902 the musical notation sheet] not 1984 the purported date on this document. No original or GBI countersigned copy has been submitted and page 2 gives rights to Spence Michlin who was not part of Kinder Bryant [he was, in fact our competitor]. This could not then be a complete integrated document. Since Sunbow agrees I am entitled to mechanical royalties and synch fees, and nothing in this document precludes that interpretation, it is not clear to me why it Sunbow is making an issue of this. No one denies I wrote this music or that it is being used. As I mention hereafter, even Ms. Phares has admitted at least that royalties may be due on DVD's to Ford Kinder [and by implication me].

SUNBOW'S COUNSEL'S ADMISSION IN HER TELECONFERENCE WITH FORD

13. a. Several months ago Ms. Phares had a telephone conversation with Ford Kinder and in that conversation, as told to me by Ford, a discussion of the Jem DVD's was had. Ford mentioned to Ms Phares that the Jem DVD's had a "Play Songs" feature and according to him was told by Ms Phares that "You may be due some money then." This applies to me as well and Ms Phares knows it. This means that she views, and we agree, the DVDs as the same as records and as such those DVD's generate mechanical royalties. Remember that each DVD has many songs on it.

b. DVD release number one, a package of 4 DVD's, features 78 songs plus the use of both the JEM MAIN THEME and the JEM GIRLS THEME, the opening and closing themes in that

DVD release. The track-only [-non-vocal] versions of the songs [my orchestrations] are used consistently throughout the show, and them JEM MAIN THEME is the connecting theme for the menu options of the DVD, as well as the thematic material throughout each show for the underscore.

SUNBOW'S USE OF GBI MUSIC IS "IN THE CASE"

14. Sunbow's lawyer has told the Court that GBI is not in the case. But Sunbow is responsible for using music in its videos and CD's and movies which it obviously got from Bacal and GBI. I have already proven with Exhibits in Evidence that Sunbow marketed and made millions from the sales of videos, cd's and licenses, and movie synchronization fees on the compositions listed in my Excel sheet. The GBI music used was composed for advertising of toys, and not any other use. Ms Phares provides no evidence as to how it is that Sunbow was able to use my music in those toy products and it is obvious, as I have pointed out in the past, that Joe Bacal, as GBI and as Sunbow, merely went to his musical piggy bank and used my music whenever it suited him, as Executive Producer, or with his son as Executive Producer, of Sunbow's videos and CD's. Bacal and Sunbow were able to give away publishing rights as part of its licensing package and because it owned and controlled Starwild and Wildstar. I am not misled by this ploy and I hope the Court is not either. Bacal's settlement does not erase the record of his actions for Sunbow and GBI both of which benefited immensely from use of my music. I attached as Exhibit D a partial list of foreign licenses by Sunbow's Bates numbers. I also attach a list and summary [Exhibit E] of the contract amounts agreed to and received by Sunbow over period 6/93 - 2002 based on documents produced by Bacal.

COURT'S RULINGS

15. I would like to remind Sunbow's counsel of what your Honor has already ruled is law of this case:

- a. That my Complaint herein includes claims for past and future royalties from the sale or distribution of CD's, videos, movies, tapes, or any products which utilized music from my source (Ruling, page 16).
- b. The Court's determination with respect to whether Bacal had a fiduciary relation is already law of the case (Ruling, page 15). —
- c. That a triable issue of fact was presented to the nature of my relationship with Bacal and whether there was a fiduciary duty by Bacal (Footnote in Ruling, page 15).
- d. That Bacal had not denied indirectly receiving royalty payments and licensing fees from Sunbow or through its various companies or that said companies [including Sunbow] have received such benefits

- e. That I produced evidence that substantial mechanical royalties and license fees have been received by Bacal's various companies, named defendants herein [which would include Sunbow] (Opinion, page 16 and 17) [and see Exhibit E and F].
- f. That the analysis regarding Bacal's relationship applies to Defendant's other companies, Defendant Star Wild Music and Wild Star Music ASCAP(Opinion, page 17 and 18). Sunbow owned both of these entities and it would apply to it as well.
- g. That regardless of the issue of a writing or lack thereof, I would not be precluded from recovering on a quantum meruit theory (Opinion, page 20).
- h. That Defendants concede all of the elements of the quantum meruit claim have been established save value (Opinion, page 20).
- i. That I have offered evidence of wrongfully held performance royalties.
- j. That the experts on all sides indicate that a songwriter's customary share of the publisher's net collection is 50% which includes mechanical and synchronization income (Opinion, page 21).

4. Sunbow made numerous domestic and foreign licensing deals which gave licensees the right to use the music and

16. I am prepared to offer substantial evidence that the licenses in the chain begun by Bacal and Sunbow are now selling various products, DVD's, CD's, videos, and ringtones, which use my music and for which royalties are due.

[ANNE BRYANT - CROSS/PHARES, RE: reserving my writer's royalties]

11 THE COURT: Well, Miss Bryant, just to sort
12 of -- hold on. Just to cut through this, are you
13 claiming you ever had a copyright in the music
14 that's before this Court?

15 THE WITNESS: I automatically when I create 16 something have a copyright unless I give it to 17 someone else.

18 THE COURT: Okay. Was there any -- was 19 there ever a case here where you say you didn't 20 give that copyright to Sunbow?

21 THE WITNESS: No. No problem. They need
22 it.

23 BY MS. PHARES:

24 Q. I would like to read to you your statement

April.

2 This is the affidavit in response to the affidavits of 3 Thomas Griffin and Jules M. Bacal.

4 A. This is the same group, same time period?

5 Q. The same time period.

6 A. Okay.

7 Q. In April this one particularly, this
8 affidavit was also signed on this was the day before 9 April 29th.

10 You said: "The Copyright Act and the very 11 agreement that Sunbow is throwing before the Court at this
12 late date reveal that a relinquishment of the copyright 13 requires a written agreement and no such written agreement
14 has been produced by the Defendants."

15 Correct?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. And then you went on to say: "Rather than 18 march down to the U.S. Federal Court in Foley Square, I 19 will simply state that the issue of the copyright was that
20 I gave G.B.I. and/or Sunbow the musical properties that I
21 created but reserved and never transferred my writer's 22 royalties."

23 A. That's correct.

24 Q. But you didn't do that in writing; is that
25 correct?

1 ANNE BRYANT - CROSS/PHARES
2 A. I never executed anything where I gave away
3 my writer's rights.

4 Q. So --

5 A. My writer's royalties share rights.

6 Q. I'm just reading -- I'm going to go back
7 over what you just said you wrote was: "The Copyright Act

8 and the very agreements that Sunbow was throwing before
9 the Court at this late date reveal that a relinquishment
10 of the copyright requires a written agreement."

11 Is that right?

12 A. That's what I said.

13 Q. That's what you said.

14 You've also just said that you didn't sign
15 anything, isn't that correct?

16 MR. MONAGHAN: No, she didn't. I object to 17 the form.

18 A. I didn't say that.

19 THE COURT: Overruled.

20 A. I said I never signed anything that gave 21 away my writer's rights. That's how I make a living.

22 Q. Did you sign anything that gave away the 23 copyrights?

24 A. I don't remember. But I didn't give away my
25 writer's rights. I've never done that in my career.

21 MS. PHARES: I beg your pardon. I'll amend
